HATCHING POETRY

A COLLABORATIVE POETRY AND ART MAKING WORKSHOP

---

MAY 17TH 2025

9 AM-3 PM

Lily on the Cove, Orleans, MA

Collaborating with poets Christine Jones and Gloria Monaghan, artist Connie Saems will lead participants in utilizing their writing from the morning walk to create a sculptural piece of visual art. Each person attending will be given a step-by-step demonstration and given all the materials they'll need to attach their writing to eggshells, expanding on the concept of organic, life, nature, nourishment, brokenness, and your own interpretation. You will leave the workshop with your creation and materials to continue the process.

Morning meditation, followed by conversation
around poetry, and a walk along the town cove
